This small book is a window into the life and journey of a centenarian Bharath Ratna Sir M. Visvesvaraya, one of the most eminent engineers ever produced by India. The journey begins with his birth, childhood memories taking us through significant stages of his Engineering career in Bombay, Hyderabad and as the Architect of Mysore, the services rendered to the nation, major awards and achievements. A timeline highlights the chronological list of events that occurred during his life time.

An accomplished engineer of international repute with unprecedented contributions in the field of engineering, Sir MV had dedicated his life towards nation building and exemplified all the qualities of an ideal engineer throughout this life. It is his flair towards engineering & nation building that has led to honor this legendary engineer by celebrating his birthday on September 15th as Engineers' Day in India.
