Preface

Anant Sambhava stands for “Infinite Possibilities” in this world. GOD has created infinite possibilities and also, the most complex creation “Human Being”, equipped with enormous powers, which are in dormant state.

Whenever we see any good thing, we immediately start imagination about the same. For example: if we are watching any reality show of dance or singing or acting etc. on television, we start dreaming about the same and wish to be like dancer or singer or actor etc..

It shows that we have infinite possibilities and we can choose to be like a famous singer or legendary actor or renowned dancer etc.

I want to share one real life example.

"When I was the student of class 12th, I got the chance to attend the marriage ceremony of one of my distant cousin. At that time I was planning to choose engineering as my career and my cousin was a Chartered Accountant. When I went to my cousin's house, I just got mesmerized to see the ambiance and decor of his home and his life style and immediately I started dreaming to become a Chartered Accountant."

Whether I completed the Chartered Accountancy or not is the secondary issue but the point to be noted here is that when I saw something fascinating, I developed my inclination towards that. Same happens with almost everyone and they get captivated with the allure.

But the burning question is that whether that tempting career is YOUR cup of tea (career of your choice) or not? If YES, then go ahead and grab it and if NO, try to search for some other options of your choice.

Irony is this that we want to be a successful person in life but fear to face failure. We never want to be unsuccessful in our life. At the same time we wish success to come to us without efforts. We work half-heartedly and wish to get 100% success. We keep our eyes/ears closed and don't want to see the possibilities around us and if anyone can't see any possibility in the situation, it is not possible for him to taste success.

If we want to enjoy the endless or infinite possibilities, we need to install or activate our hidden powers. All are like Hanuman...i.e., unaware of their hidden talent or potential. They need to be told about hidden bundle of energy or potential.

GOD has given 24 hours to everyone and it's our responsibility to make optimum utilization of this time. We can explore the possibilities and make our life happy or we can waste it and land up nowhere. In these 24 hours, we can reach either to the pinnacle of success or to the rock bottom of failure.

In this book, I have tried to pen down the traits which are must and helpful in choosing your cup of tea and to enjoy it. In other words, if you possess these traits, no one can stop you to be a successful person and enjoy the joys of life at the utmost. So friends, by the time you will reach to the last page of Anant Sambhavna, you would be an absolutely different person filled with confidence, highly motivated and a person who is aware of his/her hidden powers.

All the very best to start the journey of exploration of infinite possibilities and to open the doors of the success....

Happy reading.....
